Factory for rent in Pluak Daeng, Rayong with mezzanine and wide access

Position your operations in a brand-new factory for rent in Pluak Daeng, Rayong. This unit provides 695 sqm of usable space on a generous land size of 4,000 sq wah (approximately 16,000 sqm or about 10 rai). A modern cluster of factory buildings lines a wide internal roadway, offering smooth circulation for trucks and equipment. The fresh build and practical layout are ideal for light manufacturing, assembly, or warehouse use.

Inside, the clear-span steel structure delivers a high ceiling with roof skylight panels for natural light, louvered side ventilation, and a durable concrete floor. A tall loading bay opening supports truck access, while a steel mezzanine platform offers additional storage or future office potential. The raised foundation and broad yard areas visible onsite add flexibility for loading, parking, and outdoor staging. Located in Pluak Daeng, Rayong—an established industrial district—this factory for rent gives your business room to grow and operate efficiently. Contact us today to arrange a viewing and secure a space that fits your production or logistics needs.
