Warehouse for rent in Nong Chok with wide doors and yard

Positioned in Nong Chok, Bangkok, this Warehouse for rent offers 400 sqm of clear, practical floor space set on 100 sq wah (approx. 400 sqm or 0.25 rai) of land. The steel-frame building presents a high ceiling, open span layout and durable concrete floor suited to storage, assembly or light operations. Large sliding doors open directly to a broad, hardstand yard for truck access, loading and parking. High-bay lighting and roof skylight panels keep the interior bright, while multiple windows aid ventilation. Access is straightforward via the wide concrete apron, allowing smooth movement of vans and small trucks throughout the day.

An on-site office block sits inside the warehouse with wide windows overlooking the work area, finished with tile flooring and bright ceiling lighting—ideal for administrative tasks or a small showroom. Electrical outlets are installed in the office, and a modern restroom with shower is provided for staff convenience. The metal-clad exterior is complemented by covered canopies over the doorways for sheltered loading during wet weather. With its practical layout, internal office, restroom and ample yard, this Warehouse for rent in Nong Chok, Bangkok is ready for immediate business use and can be easily adapted to different operations such as storage, e-commerce fulfillment or light production. Contact our team today to arrange a viewing and discuss lease terms that fit your requirements.
