Warehouse for rent in Sai Mai with concrete floor, near Don Mueang Airport

This modern Warehouse for rent in Sai Mai, Bangkok delivers 1,008 sqm of usable space on a land plot of 270 sq wah (approximately 1,080 sqm or around 0.68 rai). The interior shows a wide, column-free floor plate with a high steel truss roof and daylight panels that brighten the space. A smooth concrete slab supports heavy racks and equipment, while multiple large sliding doors provide straightforward access for vehicles and goods movement. An internal built-in room block is ready for customization, and scaffolding visible in the photos indicates final touches to a recently completed structure. Clear sightlines across the floor make supervision easy and support efficient layout planning.

Outside, the metal-clad building features covered loading canopies and a generous concrete apron that allows trucks to park and maneuver for loading and unloading. Positioned in Sai Mai, Bangkok, the location places your operations within convenient reach of Don Mueang International Airport, making it practical for air-linked logistics, e-commerce fulfillment, and regional distribution. This warehouse for rent offers the adaptable footprint businesses need to scale operations efficiently. Ample natural light and broad access ways help improve safety and workflow for teams. Contact us to schedule a viewing and discuss how this space can support your storage, distribution, or light industrial needs in northern Bangkok.
