Warehouse for sale in Bang Bon with 600 sq wah land

This warehouse for sale is positioned in Bang Bon district, Bangkok province. Set on 600 square wah (~2,400 sqm, ~1.5 rai), it provides a substantial footprint for operations, parking, and maneuvering. The built area offers 1,360 sqm of usable space. Photos show a gated compound with a solid perimeter wall and a wide driveway that allows truck access from a quiet industrial lane. A covered forecourt in front of the main bay supports loading under shelter, while the concrete yard provides turning and on-site parking for vehicles.

Inside, the warehouse features a clear-span steel roof with good clearance and louvered ventilation panels for airflow. The open production floor is finished with a durable concrete slab, and an internal office block with windows and a staircase provides space for administration or staff rooms. A gantry crane beam is visible along the central bay, highlighting the structure’s suitability for heavy handling workflows. With its practical layout and straightforward street approach, this asset suits storage, light manufacturing, assembly, or distribution serving greater Bangkok.
